

THERE IS A MOUNTAIN

Words and Music by
DONOVAN LEITCH

Moderately, with a beat

The lock up - on my gar - den gate's a snail, — that's what it is. — — The — First there is a moun - tain, then there is — no moun - tain, then there is, — First there is a moun - tain, then there is — — no moun - tain, then there is. — The cat - er - pil - lar sheds — his skin — to find a but - ter - fly —

— with - in. — The — with - in. — First there is a moun - tain, then there is — no moun - tain, then there is. —

First there is a moun - tain, then there is — no moun - tain.

Oh! Wa - ni - ta, Oh! Wa ni - ta,

B \flat Cm B \flat

Oh! Wa - ni - ta, I call your name. —

B \flat B \flat

Oh! The snow will be a blind - ing sight to see As it lies —

B \flat B \flat

— on yon - der hill - side. — The lock up - on my gar -

B \flat

1. B \flat 2. B \flat

den gate's a snail, — that's what it is. — The — A

B \flat

cat - er - pil - lar sheds — his skin — To find a but - ter - fly —

1. B \flat 2. B \flat B \flat 6 Ebmaj7 F7 F11

— with - in; — A — with - in. —

B \flat Tacet - - B \flat

mf

First there is a moun - tain, then there is —

B \flat

— no moun - tain, then there is; — First there is a moun -

B \flat F7 B \flat (Repeat and Fade)

tain, then there is — no moun - tain, then there is. —